SELF-STORAGE FORUM AUDIO CD NOW AVAILABLE AT NO CHARGE

HOUSTON (September 17, 2007) – An audio recording of the September 2007 Self-Storage Forum, a semi-annual program in which industry leaders share insight about self-storage market issues, is now available at no charge on compact disc.

The September edition of the Self-Storage Forum, the fourth installment of this event launched in 2006, was conducted in Las Vegas during the SSA Fall Conference and Trade Show. Sponsored by Beacon Realty Capital and Storage Investment Advisors (SIA), and hosted by A.G. Edwards & Son Analyst John Sheehan, the Forum's speakers included SIA's Aaron Swerdlin, Beacon's Neal Gussis, Chris Joseph of Lehman Brothers, David Levenfeld of Storage Opportunity Partners, LLC, Bruce Manley of United Stor-All Centers, and Robert Vrchota of Fitch Ratings.

More than 100 owners and investors attended the presentation and engaged in the interactive discussion, which covered such topics as current market conditions, institutional buying trends and financing alternatives during a time of interest rate volatility.

To obtain the free audio CD of the September 2007 Self-Storage Forum, please contact SIA's Gina Munoz at 713.838.8000 or gina.munoz@siallp.com. The next installment of the Forum will be in February at the ISS Vegas Expo.
